

TABLE I. SURVEY QUESTIONNAIRE

Category	Questions	Detail Question
Meaningful labels and descriptive support recognition	Q1	Selection of an option clearly identifies its intended functions
	Q2	Selected items are highlighted from the rest of the unselected items
	Q3	Feedback is provided when a certain action is done in the system
	Q4	Users can see where they are in the overall system at all times
Match between system and the real world	Q1	Language used is understandable and similar to the language of the users
	Q2	Symbols, icons and names Correspond to real world objects and concepts
	Q3	Symbols, icons and names used correspond to the tasks
	Q4	Information is presented in a natural and logical order
User control and freedom	Q1	It allows modification /customization of basic system configuration to suit user's needs
	Q2	It allows users to exit any time when errors are made
	Q3	Undo and Redo actions are possible in the system
Consistency and standards	Q1	Each page is displayed in the same design principles
	Q2	The same concepts words symbols situations or actions refer to the same
	Q3	There is adequate back button to return to a previous
	Q4	Prompts and error messages appear in the same place on the screen
Error prevention	Q1	The system is designed to prevent serious errors
	Q2	Appropriate and Understandable error messages are prompted and expressed in plain language when errors occur
	Q3	Error messages identify the specific problem and give instructions for recovery
Learnability and Memorability	Q1	It is easy to use this system
	Q2	The information was effective in completing the task and scenarios
	Q3	Items and action sequences are familiar and easy to remember ,allowing the users to use the system again after some time
	Q4	Instructions on how to use the system is visible and readily retrievable when needed
Flexibility and efficiency of use	Q1	The system is user friendly
	Q2	Shortcuts are provided for frequent users of the system
	Q3	The system caters to both novice and expert users
Aesthetic and minimalist design	Q1	Layout captures user's attention
	Q2	The screen appears uncluttered readable and memorable
	Q3	There is high Contrast between the background and the text and graphics end
	Q4	Color and fonts employee are legible
	Q5	Color and graphics enhance navigation
Satisfaction	Q1	The user is satisfied with the use of this system
	Q2	The Interface of the system was pleasant